My name's John. I write a blog about bicycles. I spend a lot of time cycling. I like swimming too but I don't go to the swimming pool every week. And on Friday, I always go tenpin bowling at the Norrington Youth Centre.

At home, I have to dust the furniture. My dad sweeps the floor in the garage and my mum washes the clothes. We always clean the house on Saturday morning. I have to help my mum to make dinner at the weekend too. My sister doesn't have to help in the house because she studies at a music school and she's very busy. She's also in a rock band. They're giving a concert at the Youth Centre on Saturday afternoon and I'm going there.

My dad is a reporter. This week, he's making a documentary about swimming and next week about famous marathon runners. I want to be a reporter too. I want to make reality shows and talk to famous bands. My sister loves watching reality shows. I think they're good fun.
